

The New Indian Express

Dated: 21/05/2021

EXPRESS READ

CII, Young Indians donate medicines

Hubballi: The Confederation of Indian Industry in association with Young Indians donated medicines and other requirements to Covid patients as per the list provided by KIMS hospital doctors in Hubballi. Girish Mane, president of CII, Ch V S V Prasad, ex-chairman of CII, and others handed over medicines and other requirements to Dr C Arunkumar, Medical Superintendent, KIMS hospital and he appreciated efforts of CII and YI members in fighting Covid-19 and extending helping hand to KIMS. ENS

Online quiz contest on Covid-19

Hubballi: Anjuman-e-Islam's Nehru Arts, Science and Commerce College of Ghantikeri in Hubballi will organise a national level online quiz contest on Covid-19 on May 23. UG and PG students can participate in the quiz. First prize winner will be honoured with Rs 2,000, second prize winner Rs 1,500 and third prize winner will be given Rs 1,000 cash prize. Participants are requested to register before 2 pm on May 23 and quiz will start at 3 pm. For free online registration <https://forms.gle/ueafR1F4W1CpJsfn6>